

ATTENTION

As you will notice in the enclosed registration packet, the fees for attending the annual convention & seminars has increased. This increase was voted on by the PSCA membership at the 2009 convention in Bucks County. The increase was long overdue. The new fee schedule is as follows:

Registration for Convention/Annual Meeting (per person)	$600.00
Educational seminars – Continuing Education (8 hours)	$150.00
Spouse/Guest Meals	$100.00

Example: If you attend the convention, attend the seminars to acquired your con-ed, and bring your spouse your cost will be: $600+150+100= $850.00$

As per “County Code”: The actual expenses of all authorized elected county officers attending the annual meetings of their associations shall be paid by the counties out of the general county fund.

- Refer to the County Code sections 440-445 for the details and limitations.

Additionally, Act 122 allows you to use the money to pay for Forensic Seminars / Schools / Education Fees. The Act 122 funds for 2009 were dispersed to each county in Mid June of this year.

For those of you that charge a fee for cremation authorizations, you may use these funds for educational expenses also.

The parking at the Station Square Complex is not owned by the Sheraton Inn. The rate for parking is $13.00 per day.

The Sheraton Inn does not accept checks at check-in. Anyone paying by check must mail the payment to the Sheraton Inn at least two weeks prior to your arrival. Please include your name, check-in date and confirmation number.
